The Surveyor reports that the Inamdar's assertion that the lands in question are within certain extent duly demarcated is incorrect, the lands being all scattered.

With regard to the discrepancy pointed out in this office, the Supt. shows that the first is no discrepancy at all.

The recorded area at the Inam settlement being (in acres) about 19 acres and the area actually found by measurement at the survey being about 54 acres, the excess is 35 acres. Half the excess being allowed under the rules, the calculation in this respect is all right

$19 + \frac{1}{2}(54-35) = 36\frac{1}{2}$

The Supt. admits that the "map book" of 100 papers was not made the basis of calculation, on general grounds and that in this particular instance the allocation maybe Petitioner Mr. Subba Krishna Row states that he was enjoying as Inam the whole land as defined by Vaman Moodray boundary stones & that there was no room for encroachment as it was bounded on all sides by occupied lands.

The copy of the Sanad of the late Maharaja Krishnaraj Wadayer dated 1824 shews a grant of land worth 100 Kanteerava pagodas ~~wherever~~ delete by petitioners ancestors

At the Inam settlement C K F 8-14-8 of land assessed at Rs 290-14-7 - Equivalent of 100 Pagodas was noted as Inam

At the survey of 1885 the whole land measured 5 acres 39 sq. links was assessed at $1 369 - In pursuance of a Government Proclamation of 1891 all leases above 5 acres per cent had to be charged according with, apparently a 36 sq. links plan. valued at $1 25 only was confirmed as Farm.

The records do not explain the large difference between the recorded extent of the Farm Settlement & the survey measurement. The former gives 8-14-6 (C K S) which according to title given by the Dept. Comm. of Woods & Forests per Candy or about 2 acres, & about 19 acres. The petitioner begs to state as follows:—

Please see plans

1. That the wet lands situated in Byadaraiahi and Mavathoor of the Yedatora Taluk whose survey numbers are 6, 2, 12, 53, 52, 57, 58, 59, 62, 64, 69, 139, 138 and 193 were granted to his great grandfather as Inam in the year 1824. A copy of the Sanad is herein enclosed for information.

2. That at the time when the Inam was granted, the lands were demarcated by Pamara Chitra stones fixed at the four corners. The applicants lands were surrounded on all sides by channels and lands under holding. There were no banjar or uncultivated Sirsi lands on any side of the applicant and his predecessors have been enjoying them as Inam since 1824 paying the usual quit rent and local cess amounting in all to Rs 73 nine

3. That during the Survey Settlement Nos 56, 57 and 63 of Ellavattur village, and 130, 131 and 192 of Byadarahalli village have been assessed and a cess of Rs 113 levied on them even though every one of these numbers is situated within the extent demarcated by stones.

4. That the village authorities brought a portion of these lands for sale last year. The applicant paid the amount under protest and applied to the Amildar to have it as deposit until the disposal by the higher authorities of the dispute about the extra assessment. But he was not pleased to do so. He was neither pleased to furnish the applicant with a copy of the order by which the land was demarcated and given to the Amildar, though several applications were made to that effect.

5 That the petitioner applied to the Deputy Commissioner of Ellysire on the 4th April 1895 asking him to cancel the extra assessment and to remit to the applicant the amount already deposited by him. The Deputy Commissioner ordered that since the assessment was levied by the order of the Court, he had no power to interfere in the matter.

The applicant therefore prays that the extra assessment on his Inam lands may be cancelled and the amount deposited by him last year in addition to

to his usual quit rent and dues has remitted to him. He further prays that till the disposal of this application, the Auditor may be ordered not to demand the extra assessment newly imposed.

and the survey valuation thereof viz Rupees 118, was levied as Khalsat, or assessment on the numbers included therein. In other words out of the total extent of 54 acres and 39 Guntas of the inam lands, valued at Rs 369 at the Survey, an extent of only 36 acres and 20 Guntas valued at Rs 251 was treated as inam; the remainder viz: 18 acres and 19 Guntas being classed as Govern= ment land bearing the difference, viz Rs 118, as assessment thereon. This amount together with the quit rent and cesses, has been levied from the inamdars by the Amildar from 1893-94. The petitioner complains of this extra assessment of Rs 118 imposed as per revised quit rent register of the Gedalore

The Amildar reports that the inam lands are surrounded on all sides by occupied lands and that they adjoin no waste land. He further states that though the demarcation stones referred to above, still exist in some of the inam lands, they do not serve as guides to shew the boundaries of all the lands. In the sanad dated the 21st of August 1824, a copy of which is filed by the petitioner with his petition to Govt, the grant of wet lands having a beriz of 100 Canteroy pagodas i.e. Rs 290-14-7 is

SIR,

With reference to your official memorandum No. Rl/120 dated the 6th July 1895, forwarding for report the petition of B. Subba Krishna Rao residing in the Taluk of Mysore, complaining of the extra assessment charged on his inam lands in Byadarahalli and Inavattur in the Gedarige taluk, beg to state as follows:—

2. The petitioner and 4 others, named Krishnappah, Nanjaiah, Narasimhaiah and Channiah are the khatedars of certain wet inam lands whose recorded extent is 8 Candies, 4 Kilogas and 8 manes, and whose assessment or beriz is Rupees 290-4-7. At the inam settlement of the lands a quit-rent of Rs. 26 was imposed upon them. During the survey settlement of the taluk in 1885, the lands were formed into 14 numbers, measuring altogether 54 acres and 89 cuntas, and were assessed at Rs 309. The former quit rent together with the local and irrigation cesses at one anna per rupee of the survey valuation, was being recovered from the inamdars till the close of the year 1892-93 (Nandana).

upon

3. In Government Notification No. 25 dated the 10th June 1891, all excesses above 50 per cent in minor inams were directed to be taxed. In pursuance of the order, revised quit rent registers were received from the Inam Superintendent in 1893-94. In the register relating to the case in question, an extent of 18 acres and 19 cuntas of the inam was treated as excess,

Inam lands held by him at Mavatur and Byadarahalli Hunitas (Yedatore village) in the Yedatore village and bases his complaint chiefly on the assertion that the Inam lands in question were first granted they were demarcated by Waman Murdeshwar stones and that they are all situated within the extent so demarcated. The lands now claimed as Inam are all scattered. The Petitioners assertion authorized, with a direction that the lands selected in the grants should be demarcated with Yamana Mudra stones, but no mention is made therein of any particular extent of land as comprised in the assigned area. The large difference in the extent of these inam lands between the old and survey measurements is evidently due to the calculation of the former at the recognised rate of 10000 Square yards or 2 acres, 2 Guntas and 28 Square yards to each Khandy of the former measure.

that
